Any broker with a property on a tour is required to attend the GM meeting. Failure to attend the GM meeting without prior notification to TAR will result in the prohibition of that broker putting a property on the next tour. A second violation in 18 months will prohibit the broker from putting a property on tour for the next three consecutive tours. An alternate penalty on any single violation regarding the tours/GM Meeting is to pay $100 fine which will be donated to the FTHBAF or Hoot Brown Scholarship, the REALTOR's choice.

Any broker with a property on a "TAR Sponsored Tour" must follow the TAR opening/closing procedures/policy. The property must be staffed, opened on time, and be open the entire span of the tour hours. Failure to abide by this policy without prior notification to the TAR Office will result in the prohibition of that broker putting a property on the next tour. A second violation in 18 months will prohibit the broker from putting a property on tour for the next three consecutive tours. An alternate penalty on any single violation regarding the tours/GM Meeting is to pay $100 fine which will be donated to the FTHBAF or Hoot Brown Scholarship, the REALTOR's choice.
